Our Alma Mater

It is a matter of great pride for us that the Harcourt Butler Technological Institute (HBTI), Kanpur is our alma mater. Our Institute has a glorious history and has always been in the forefront for technological developments and growth of industries in the country since its inception. The Institute had its decent beginning in 1920 as Government Research Institute, Kanpur with Dr. E. R. Watson as its first Principal. In 1921, the Institute was renamed as Government Technological Institute, Uttar Pradesh. It was inaugurated by Sir Spencer Harcourt Butler, the then Governor of U. P. Province on November 25, 1921. The Institute got its present name in 1926. Degree courses in Oil Technology and Chemical Engineering were started in 1954 and thereafter, number of undergraduate and post graduate courses were started. Today, the Institute is running thirteen Under Graduate Courses and ten Post Graduate Courses out of which eleven undergraduate courses are accredited by the National Bureau of Accreditation (NBA), AICTE, New Delhi. The University Grants Commission, New Delhi has declared HBTI, Kanpur as the autonomous Institute affiliated to U.P. Technical University, Lucknow .

About Alumni Association Harcourt Butler Technological Institute, Kanpur

HBTI had the Alumni Association since the inception of Institute. Harcourtians' Association had been very active in past but it saw a dormant phase till it was activated with all vigor in 1996 by a bunch of enthusiastic Harcourtians. The Association has its chapters located at Kanpur, Bombay, Meerut, New Delhi (NCR), Calcutta, Bangalore, Hyderabad etc.. The Association has been regularly organizing get together where alumni get the opportunity to share their experiences and thoughts and in continuation to it the Association organized first International Alumni Meet in November, 2005 in the Institute. Subsequently Institute's Board of Governors approved the by-laws of 'Alumni Association, Harcourt Butler Technological Institute, Kanpur' and is registered under Societies Registration Act and has it's full time functional office in the Institute. This is the Fifth Alumni Meet in series being organized by Association.
